

Overview

Beverley is Strategic Insights Manager for Merryck. Her focus is on strategic relationship building with clients to deepen Merryck's understanding of company requirements and opportunities across the businesses we serve.

Career History

Beverley has 15 years' experience working in executive search, focused on non-executive roles on listed Boards. She spent the last five years with a boutique firm which specialised in the professional services space, earlier roles include Korn Ferry and Odgers Berndtson.

Prior to her career in search, Beverley worked in the House of Commons in several capacities, latterly as Private Secretary to Philip Hammond when he was Shadow Chief Secretary to the Treasury.

Beverley has a BA (Hons) from the University of London.

Personal

Beverley lives in Southwest London with her wife, toddler and a very small dog.