

Overview

Sam is Chief Operating Officer at Global Mentors Group where she is responsible for managing the day to day operations across Merryck and CMi ensuring the smooth and efficient running of the business. Having joined Merryck in 2006, Sam brings a wealth of knowledge of the organisation and its customers to ensure delivery of excellent service to Merryck's customers and clients.

Career History

Sam has over 25 years' experience working in communications and marketing agencies in client facing and management roles. Prior to joining Merryck, Sam was Commercial Director for the Channel marketing, communication and event agency Euro RSCG Skybridge and the global advertising & marketing agency Ogilvy & Mather where she worked across B2B and B2C accounts.

Personal

Sam holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. She has two children and enjoys running, walking, skiing, reading and learning new things.