

DOMINIC REID OBE

Board Experience

CEO, INVICTUS GAMES
FOUNDATION
GOVERNOR, MUSEUM OF LONDON

Dominic is the CEO of the Invictus Games Foundation which he has built on the success of the inaugural London 2014 Games, of which he was Event Director. He is responsible for the delivery of the Games and the nurturing of the Invictus spirit and its global impact. He has overseen successful Games in London, Orlando, Toronto, Sydney, The Hague, Düsseldorf and is working towards the first winter hybrid Games in Vancouver/Whistler 2025.

He is also the Pageantmaster of the Lord Mayor's Show. During his career he has held roles including Director of the 350th Anniversary Programme of the Royal Society, Executive Director of the Oxford & Cambridge Boat Race and London Film Commissioner, He was a Governor of the Museum of London.

Dominic trained and practised as an architect, holds an MA in architecture from Cambridge University and a postgraduate diploma from the Bartlett School of Architecture at UCL. He was appointed OBE in 2003 for services to the City of London and The Queen's Golden Jubilee. He is one of His Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London and a former soldier.