

Overview

Bernadette works alongside the Partners to provide seamless co-ordination and smooth communication between key stakeholders, clients and mentors. She has a wealth of experience working at C-Suite level within senior management teams and at the top of corporate organisations in FTSE 100 media, broadcasting and technology companies, as well as private equity, healthcare and education.

Personal

Bernadette enjoys spending time with her family, entertaining and watching rugby. She is a trained voice-over actor and relaxes playing the piano in her spare time. She also has a keen interest in politics and current affairs.